

Ben's Story

Ben came to us as an older dog who, like many rescue Collies, had not had a very happy, loving life. Ben's past made him mistrust young people, plus he was not fond of cats or young, playful dogs so placing him proved to be a challenge. We had to find just the right new home for Ben. During a long foster period we learned that a very nice dog lay under Ben's tough exterior. Ben's foster family deserves a lot of credit for their patience and understanding. Since his adoption, Ben has come a long way! We are so grateful to his adoptive family for giving Ben a loving home so that he will be happy through his golden years.
