

Ken's Story

Ken The Collie as we call him is an 8 year old tri male, who had been well cared for from a good home. After a family breakup, Ken started suffering from separation anxiety so his owner asked us to find him a new home - one where he would get the attention that he was used to. Kenny has found a new home with an owner who is retired and has settled in nicely to enjoy his golden years.